14 Feb. 5th 1896.

Dear Sir,

At the request of Mr. Judge
I have sent you, by parcel post, copies of the last four volumes of the Sunday Review. These we can supply at half price, viz 6^d per quarterly number = 8/- for the four volumes.

I think we could, with some difficulty & the assistance of the Committee, make up a complete set of the 10 previous volumes, but for these we should have to charge the full price of 1/- per number, or £2 for the 40 numbers.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

Herbert Freeman
Assist. Sec.
