CROMWELL ROAD, S.W.

Feb 7th 191.

Dear General.

Many thanks for your kind & cordial letter. I have tried to see Clarke twice but he has gone to Constantinople He will no doubt come and see me as soon as he returns. I was skinned who seemed to think the notion an excellent one if it could be managed. and if the New Zealand House ~~it~~ cannot be sold he suggested that it might be sent to you on a kind of perpetual loan. We will see when ^{Clasha} ~~Clasha~~ returns. Will you kindly thank Mrs. Jay for having sent me the account of the trumpets. It is most interesting & ought to be put on record in a more permanent way. I should also be obliged if you would send the enclosed to your son the Guardsman. My wife & I went to call but found the house in the hands of strangers & I don't know his address. He has sent us a photograph of his baby

If any of your sons are passing through town and would care to come in and see my toys it would be most a delight to me to see them. Give our very kind regards to Mrs. All Novers & Always believe me

Yours very devotedly
