It has been suggested by some friends of the late Sir Henry Ponsonby, who served with him as brother officers, and during his official career, to have some suitable memorial of him.

The Guards' Chapel, Wellington Barracks, has been thought a desirable place, as Sir Henry was for so many years in the Brigade of Guards.

The subjoined officers have consented to be nominated on a Committee:—

General H. H. PRINCE EDWARD OF SAXE WEIMAR, G.C.B.
General Sir GEORGE HIGGINSON, K.C.B.
Colonel OLIPHANT, Commanding Grenadier Guards.
Colonel Visct. FALMOUTH, C.B., Comdg. Coldstream Guards.
Colonel B. CAMPBELL, Commanding Scots Guards.
Colonel The Honourable H. BYNG, C.B.
Lieut. Colonel Sir FLEETWOOD EDWARDS, K.C.B.
Lieut. Colonel Sir Arthur BIGGE, K.C.B.
Sir FRANCIS KNOLLYS, K.C.M.G.
Hon. Sec., The Regimental Adjutant, Grenadier Guards.

Should you be disposed to send a subscription, the Honorary Secretary will duly acknowledge the fact.

EDWARD OF SAXE WEIMAR,

General,
Chairman.
