

Vols. I, II & III
Cloth Lent

BRIGHTON

L1561

Public Museum and Picture Gallery,

ROYAL PAVILION.

7th May, 1896

Dear Sir,

As we are rearranging our collection of Romano-British Pottery, &c., we are anxious to have every aid to a correct classification, and our Chairman has suggested to me that you might be induced to present our institution with your own works on the excavations you have made. My interest in our work may excuse my taking a liberty which I feel would otherwise be unpardonable. I am,

Dear Sir,

Yours very truly,
Benjamin Horrocks

Genl Pitt Rivers