Dear Sir

As you are interested in locks & keys you may like to see enclosed sketched by me last week in a Village Ch. near Bala :- named Slanycil -

The base of Key is said to form a sort of rebus on the name of the Village

LL is clear & the Y
on top (the missing AN, may belong to the date) and CIL
is Welsh for the hollow part of Key

---

Do not return tracing
or trouble to reply,
there may be
other examples

Yours faithfully
W.G. Smith
