

Worborne

June 4th. 1896

L1586

My dear Sir.

In the ancient church yard of the little Norman parish church of West Parley, Worborne, the Rector, the Rev. R. C. Chudleigh, has just found a curious urn.
There was a local tradition that a Lady's heart had been buried in the graveyard, in a certain place. Well, yesterday, Mr.
Chudleigh set to work and found his beautiful and curious and nearly perfect work

Believe Me, dear Sir,

Yours Very Truly

A. J. H. Crespe