

idea of drawing from prospectus. My impression is that it would be given to you, if the name of the donor were more moderately published immortalized!

At last the gracious Rain is come! would that it had been a month earlier! I am deeply grateful to you for the gift of the book.

I should add that the list of stores submitted stood a subject but the cause is an able matter it is then done! I had to W. H. each day to show it to you of my own view and I am sure that in the drawing room of W. Hankinson of Bournemouth I
yesterday saw one of the finest sepulchral British urns with all its contents which has

Ans. June 10/96.
2589
The Moot.
Downton.
Wilts.
W. Hankinson, address in Eastbury Bournemouth

1007
401000
111

Ever come under my water. It was found near Ford near the Stom on its way to Xelchuk - about 12 years since - You may perhaps know it or if its discovery but I think it well to write you. It is about

16 inches high & 11 in shape dark
brown bottom

It is in a glass case & well cared for Proprietor
It is in unappraised
hands - W. H. Haukinson wants to be rid of it, as the association are inconsistent with the