Dear Sir

Your letter to hand for which I am obliged enclosed please find &c I extremely regret that I am quite booked up for August-
bank holiday and have been for some time

I could not personally get hold of a small quantity for that day
I have several Lady

Vocalists. I could bring you at any other time.

The Pills and Rays
are booked as well that day. I am taking the liberty of sending you
a photo of my full troupe of Minstrels and beg to ask your acceptance of same. I shall be pleased to book anything for you for your Annual Fair in September. I have some splendid novelties in Minstrelley. I could see you there.

Yours faithfully
Arthur Hillard
