time to Superintendent.

You may remember
I got at the Parnell
Sale, many years ago, one of the missing British Down daggers, curiously enough I have lately got another, No. 6. in Rankes paper in Archaeologia, which was sold without any notice about it, at a Sale of jewels in London.
The other may still be in existence. Yours sincerely

Dear Pitt. Rivers

I have undertaken,
on the advice of some of the Fellows, to pocket
a Budget of the R. M.
for the Royal Society fellowship, though I wish some more influential person had taken it up.

He has done very good work in many ways, and his
excavations in Egypt and Mesopotamia
are certainly to be considered as original research.

May I send the certificate to you?

I hope you are still at work with the

exploration of camps &c.
I wish you had an estate on the line of the Roman Wall, and I should a claim on some for much needed
excavations there.
Something has been done but spasmodically,
and there is much
need of an experienced
