

The British Museum, Thanks again for your offer, and I should like you to purchase them, but you will see, I want to get as much as I can, can't you offer £80 for them?

Yours truly
G Carey

I am sorry to trouble you, but will you kindly answer me by return.

(L1650)

250 Ladbroke Grove

Notting Hill

Sep 11th / 96

Dear Sir

Thanks very much for your letter this morning and offer of £50 for the moulds, I should not feel safe in sending them so far, for me to see, and I cannot exactly afford to bring them to Salisbury.

myself, I will tell you candidly I am British was offered from £40 to 50, and a lady was offered £60, but of course I should like to get more, the B. Museum always calls them Monies for casting Spear heads, I feel almost certain, I told you I have only two Monies, I believe there is a driving of them in