

Content but had much pressure put upon me.
 But I at last consented on the understanding that all the main work of organization came from + also all expenses should be done for me those who have worked the hardest in the past expect confidence in the result.

My dear friend Many thanks for your kind letter +
 promise of support.
 I am sure all fellow workers will sustain you do believe to the best interests of the cause of the fair free education

I don't see much objection to what you don't take him it, a 1/2 year week of m. which I think perhaps does not amount to the case being fairly to much, if the school agree with the Law therefore the salary of a ^{well in that's it's improve} clerk to collect & receive ^{table. I think the great} in school funds ought ^{question arose, whether} be dispensed with. ^{we are to support the trust.} have been bound, they ^{tation of the same, or those} will have to decide this ^{who led by Sir Randolph} or many other questions ^{Marchant are stated terms} of the sort especially that ^{with those in Ireland who} of empowering the Board ^{to in for the last membership} authorities & purchase lands ^{of the empire & the severance} for letting out on allotments ^{of Ireland from the Crown} I don't see the fact that ^{had much rather have} held a loaf from this

Dear Sir Thomas

I am sorry you were not able to give me a more definite answer about your intentions as to the forcible seizure of land by Parish boards. I think such irregularities are doing an immensity of mischief by their promulgation & that those who have a real knowledge examples gradually

of the evils they will encounter ought not to withhold their opinion on the subject at such a time

Sir William Harcourt, speech at Blandford in which he adopts

Mr Chamberlain's programme on this subject has decided me not to support the ~~side~~ called Liberal party in this country & it only remains for me to consider how far I should ~~be in opposing them~~ endeavour to use any influence I possess in opposing them

Yours very truly

A Pitt Rivers.
