

Three years to attain
their full plumage
in the tail feathers.

I hope that you &
Mrs Pitt Rivers are well & am very sorry
I was not south
this year, as I should have thoroughly enjoyed a visit to Rushmore.

Believe me
Yrs sincerely
Sewardine Webb.

Webb
Ans. Dec. 12/96.
Telegrams & Station, Newstead, Mid. Rail. and G.N.R.

(L179)
Newstead Abbey, Nottingham.

Dec: 10th

Dear General Pitt Rivers
When I spent the day at Rushmore
last year, I recollect
asking you if you
had any of the long-tailed Japanese houlty, & you said

Postage & packing charges
G.M.O. Box 11111

Edward A. Bess
New York

W.D., & appeared rather interested in them; I
if you would care
I have 2 cocks of this breed, I should be delighted send them to you (if you will tell me the route & how to address them) as

since I was in Dorsetshire I have
This
race given to me.
They are very handsome birds, something like a jungle cock, &
very fond of fighting amongst themselves.
being only hatched
out last Spring, their tails are of no length yet, as they take