

2/
TELEGRAPH-NIXON.
RAILWAY STATION
SEWLEY.

CLOUDS,
SALISBURY.

Most Sincerely
Madeline Gndman

I think you will find ~~Mr~~ Fisher
a most simple
intelligent &
pleasant Companion
He has dined
with me several
times in London
& been most interesting

of the excavations
in the of the History of King's House - as we had not had them
only the 1st Vol of the Book of Locks
So they are all together now. &
are most valued
by us - Thanking
you again for them
& for my delightful
visit the other day
Believe me yours

Bushmore &
that he will
get together all
the bits of his work that he can & bring
them with him & show them to you - He cannot get away before
the 30th on which
day he will come
to Bushmore if it

Suits you. M
You kindly let him know if
it will suit. ^{to the}
Alec. Fisher Esq
4 Warwick Studios
Kensington High
Road
London. —

Perry was delighted
then I showed him the 2 Vols

2/
TELEGRAPH-HINDON.
RAILWAY STATION
SHELLEY.

CLOUDS,
SALISBURY.

Most Sincerely
Madeline Gnd May

I think you will
find ~~Mr~~ Fisher
a most simple
intelligent &
pleasant companion.
He has dined
with me several
times in London
& been most interesting