

presents itself.

Yours very truly Frederick James.

Mr. General Pitt-Rivers, D.C.L., F.R.S. &c.

Ans'd.

Primitive Warfare Part III
Lent. Jan. 23/97. (L1731) Museum & Public Library.

Maidstone

13. Jan. 1897

Dear General Pitt-Rivers,

I should be very much obliged to you if you could lend me for the purposes of a lecture here on the "Bronze Period", the part of your lecture on "Primitive Warfare" containing the diagram of types of bronze celts arranged in the order of gradation of form from the simple flat cell to the more complex socket-cell." I have been giving a course of oral demonstrations on the Collection of Antiquities contained in the museum on Wednesday evenings during the ~~last~~ winter months. The series of actual objects illustrating the Bronze Age though is so meagre that I am compelled to supply drawings in their place.

"

I hope everything is going on well at Rushmore, and that you are in the enjoyment of good health. Is farming with you better than it used to be? The number of holdings in hand in this county, in fact, in this immediate neighbourhood, is appalling, and no immediate remedy