Miss Gwyn. Jefferys presents her compliments to General Pitt-Rivers and wishes to say she will be very pleased if General Pitt-Rivers could call here at her Studio within the next few days as she has just completed a

Statute which she hopes General Pitt-Rivers will do her the pleasure to accept instead of the one in the Academy.
Her brother in law Prof. Mosely told her of the accident which had happened to it and therefore Miss Jefferys thought she would try to replace it by another as nearly similar as possible under the circumstances And if General Pitt-Rivers could come one day soon before it goes to be valued Miss Jefferys would like to show it him.
