My dear General
As I gather from your letter about £3,000 would be as much as you feel inclined to spend on the purchase of Raboth The only way I would prefer to buy Ellages and then you could enter immediately we had made a preliminary agreement. ~~XXXX~~ If you could have managed the 3,500 I would have been able to let you have the sheep on the north side of the and the ordinary

I suggest that the then they and I should not require to be ~~any~~ compensated for Ellages

Yours
Arthur's
Raboth Jones

could meet you under these circumstances would be that I would let you have all on the left hand side of the road on the way to Ferne Hollow for three thousand one hundred pounds.
But I should have to somewhat further modify the boundary on the west end and have to make the boundary the old hedge line. This price would not include the strip on the right hand side of the road. I would give you possession of the land at Michaelmas unless you
