

peculiar question
but family reasons
have induced me to do so.

I remain
yours obediently

Sir

May I respectfully
remind you of your
promise, made at my father's death, to put a stone up over his grave, and, taking into consideration the
time which has elapsed,
venture to ask if you
have abandoned your kindly expressed
intention?

I must apologise for
asking this somewhat.
