Miss Gwyn Jeffreys presents her compliments to General Pitt-Rivers thinking probably he has not received a letter from her written a week ago asking him if he could find it convenient to call at her Studis to see a Statuette which she has completed & begs General Pitt-Rivers to accept - instead of the one in the Academy. Miss Gwyn Jefferys writes again as she would like to know if there is any chance of General Pitt-Rivers being able to call on her soon before she leaves the States she to be visited
