Dear General Pitt-Rivers

Herewith I return the coat I borrowed, & which I ran off with for the north journey, as I had not time to go back to the Bishop's to pick up my own!

I have delayed sending it in' order to enclose the two weapons spear-heads; I am sorry there is only one with a socket. I bought them at Meonia & perhaps probably they came from the tombs of the neighbouring.

We have a letter from Douglas this week, who is evidently enjoying himself camping out & skeletoning, & who promises us an expedition in Edm^{ts}, so he is evidently busy. From Lionel we have nothing this mail, which doubtless indicates that he is still busier!

My wife unites in kind regards to Mr Pitt Rivers & yourself. (We have a little boy & girl again with us here. but the baby only arrives today (having been in quarantine) so it is a new acquaintance to make after 24 months, & a great household event to which I must hasten!) Believe me,

Yours faithfully

Stanley de
