To General Pitt-Rivers,

Dear Sir

I am sending you a rough list of my collection of ethnological things from houses with prices to them, at the same time I may mention that I am anxious to dispose of the whole in one lot, unless you or the British Museum can take sufficient out of them to make it worth my while to break up the collection.

I have not had time to draw up a detailed list, but hope this will enable you to judge what they are; at the same time please return it to me because I have not copied it all out yet.

I have written to Mr Salfour at Oxford asking him to come and see the collection with a view to purchasing the same.

Please put a \times to all those things which you would like to have.

An early reply will greatly oblige

Yours faithfully
Edward Bartlett

P.S. No doubt you will remember my name as late curator to the Winton Museum
before Mr James took it.
