Dear Sir

I am expecting to be in the neighbourhood of Salisbury between June 14 and 21, and I am hoping to visit your Museum at Farnham. You were once so kind as to say that you would shew me the Museum if you happened to be at home, but this was a long time ago, and I am aware that I can hardly claim the promise after such an interval of time; but it would be such an immense advantage to see the Museum under your guidance that I cannot quite forego the chance of it, and therefore venture to ask whether it would be convenient to you, if you are in sufficient health, and at Rush-mere, to meet me (and my daughter) at the Museum any day between June 14 and 21.

I forwarded to you yesterday a book which I have just brought out on the antiquities of the Sheffield and Rotherham district. I hope it will meet with your approval. It is an attempt to popularize some of the more recent conclusions of archæology, as far as I have been able to get at them, in the hope of spreading a more general interest in antiquities.

Believe me, dear Sir
Yours sincerely
Ella S. Armitage
