My dear Sir,

Thank you for your letter of yesterday.

It is my earnest wish that I might resign in your favour as vicar on the occasion of the Arch: Inst: visiting your great Curia Abbas Borne. But if this cannot be I will take care to supervise now the framing of the roof to be changed.

I look forward with delightful expectation to your address.

I am yours truly

R. J. Moule.
