Dear Sir,
I have to thank you for the four parts of your vol. of recent Excavations, forming a portion of the 4th Volume of your valuable work of which you have kindly sent me the previous volumes.
These were given me at Oxford by Mr. Stephenson on the conclusion of our recent very pleasant & interesting meeting of the R. A. Institute.

The present volume seems quite equal to its predecessors in value, but I have not yet had time to do more than glance through its contents. I am just off to Tenby (or Delamont) for a few weeks, and shall take some of the party with me. On my return I should much like to humbly follow your lead by having a dig at the Dausdyke near Maes

Knoll, and at the British village a few miles east. If permission can be obtained the best way would be, I presume, to form a small "Excavation Committee" consisting of about half a dozen, including Mr. Winwood, Prof. C. Lloyd Morgan and Prof. Boyd Dawkins. In that case would you allow us to associate your name with the work? Perhaps the
