

Hope you will forgive my saying how greatly I should value the 4th whenever it is ready for delivery.

Trusting soon to hear from improvement in your health

Remain, dear General,

Dear General Pitt Rivers,

In your address to me R. Arch Institute at Dorchester the other day (which I had the pleasure of listening to) you spoke of the 4th Vol of your excavations, & I saw on the table what I took to be portions of the same.

As you have been so kind as to send me the first 3
volumes of the book,
