

from east to west. The northern jamb of the main northernly of the two Eastern gates of the camp is built on this ditch, which has been ^{filled} built up with large stones to make a good foundation for the jamb.

We have also traced (this year & last) the ditch of the Vallum making a

Ferguson
Ansd. Sept. 11/97.

LOWTHER STREET,
CARLISLE.

L1915

Aug 29/97.

Dear General Pitt Rivers, Pray accept my very best thanks for your kind present of the four parts of your 4th volume, which I received at Dorchester through the Secretary of the Archaeological Institute.

LOWTHER STREET,
CARLSLE

I have found the three volumes already [by your kindness] in my library of the greatest possible use, and, no doubt, I shall find much to profit me in the new volume.

We opened our summer campaign of digging on the Roman Wall on August 10, & have already made a most important discovery viz that the ditch of the Wall of built-up-turves, which we found two years ago, actually goes under the Camp at Birdenwald.

circumbendibus round the South of the Camp at Bindoswald.

These discoveries will explode many fine learned theories Yours, with renewed thanks for your kindness, Richard S Ferguson