

scarcely old rubbish pits and were not inhabited, sans hearths, and containing coals and the usual debris.

I am sure that you will be very successful at Ewerne.
I am surprised to see how many remains Lady Baker got in the small area which she dug.

I am

My dear General

Yours truly

W. Boyd Dawkins

Gen. Pitt Rivers

Ans^d
Sept. 20/97.

11940

Ranston

19. 11. 97

My dear General,

It is very good of you to ask us to luncheon on Wednesday.
I propose to leave Blandford at 9.30 and drive to the Museum.
We will then drive on to Rushmore and take King John on our return to Blandford in the afternoon. I hope that you will not put yourself to any trouble about us, altho' of course it would add to the interest if you could meet us at the Museum. I do not like to trespass too much on your kindness.

We have only one den. more at Hod-toke given to prospecting within the British Ranpats close to the inner Ring. The pits in the British Quarters are either near or then with circular enclos. ones, and stand about 4 feet into

The ground. Some of the enclosures are with timber pits, and probably contained pits on the ground level. Some of the timber pits are enclosed enclos. ones.

↳ The Roman quarters the pits are