HANFORD,
BLANDFORD.

Dear General Pitt Rivers.

I did not get his Telegrams from on yesterday. only one. Much I wonder - I wonder what because of the other -

The window is parted in its one case - I believe some Carpenter saw it yesterday. certainly send for it tomorrow -

I should not like for later later

I shall window until for hand seen them again - possibly they would be of no use to you -

I have no means of discovering what they cost. He would take £10. for the two. at any time if you want them

I was sorry I was too late to see you yesterday at Sherborne. I wish you could have come to see me today. I am expecting one of my sons home from India today if he is well enough. he is to go to Scotland tomorrow on Friday. I will be away until nearly in November.

Thank you very much for the books which I received this morning -

Yours sincerely
