with one thing and another, this picture exhibition has taken up a good deal of my time and now we are about to start the work of remodeling the local rooms at the Museum.

Dear General Pitt Rivers,

Thank you for sending me your lecture at Exeter.

I only wish that Cass Greenwell could publish his Illustrative lessons with similar diagrams to those in your book. I understand that he has it all ready for the printer, it is such a pity if this is wanted that he does not keep it out himself, another man is sure to be interested all his notes and the result will be a improved book.

I was not much impressed with the digging - Fred Hill, surely it is a mistake to start work at once the are faint where you have several people to superintend the different works, however Professor Boyd Durbis considered this ~~method~~ to be the best way. I want to have written before to thank you for your kind hospitality
