

more definite plans I will lay them before you. The bugbear of capital is not brought forward very prominently in this Roumanian business. I still hope you will see your way to putting the £350 - balance of my Canadian capital - into any undertaking that promises success.

Melagau appears to think he can cure my mother, her leg seems already less painful Yr Affec Son
Lewis Fox Pitt

Station, Orpington.

High Elms
Harnborough, R.S.O.
Kent.

11981
Oct 26th
1891

Dear Father

I think this 'Anglo Roumanian Steam Plough Co' may turn out to be a good concern.
I have written to an old schoolfellow - a Roumanian who is a lawyer in Bucharest to look into the matter for me and report. I am waiting for his opinion, which from a person of his position in the country - some of a prince - will be worth a great deal and enable us to find directors.

I had intended to go to Rushmore some days ago, but I find it necessary to be here pending the answer to my letter.

My only chance of obtaining work is to have a good many strings to my bow. I have a good many now tho' most of them are rather rotten.

I have this Roumanian scheme, fiddes', chance of work if I get to Cyprus and lastly excavating for you. This last of course cannot be regarded in the light of lucrative employment and I should never be well enough off to take up Archaeology for its own sake, when I have