TARRANT KEYNSTON RECTORY, BLANDFORD.

Nov. 7.th 1897

Dear General Pitt-Rivers,

I have been over to see the excavation at Sworne, and was very sorry to miss you only by a few minutes. You had just left when I got there, but I saw the work going on, and your assistants showed me what you had found.

Since then I have been in London about three weeks, and only came back a few days ago.

I shall take the earliest opportunity of riding over again. Perhaps next Friday \pounds

I shall be able to go. I have got several engagements till then. I hope on that day
I shall be fortunate enough to find you there.

Yours very truly,
E. Highton

P.S. I am very glad to hear that you have found a Roman Villa. This is all new to me.

E.H.
