WHATCOMBE,
BLANDFORD.
—AND TELEGRAPH—

My dear Fear & Howard General

It is very kind of you to write me such an full & interesting account of what you have done at Shute. The two months work has not been in vain. Independent of the numerous ^{relics} the exposure of the long hall is quite worth the trouble and labour. The further underlying will explain much that at present seems to be difficult to unravel. Your indirection from the ^{beginning}

Celtic fables & don't keep that the Roman slaves were natives & not imper-tators for your experience as naturally as well as I am in valuable & show how much authorology is wanted to achieve:

log
See some your idea - Application of properly with Vendogledia when I went into the Roman Stemmen I felt fully convinced that I was Iberian were I was a type in philology would spite it without difficulty The two Roman camps

Give the head of the phonetic word a double blow one more thanking you for John Vallance letter
I remain
Ever your affectionately
