the other day & he told me the guards officers got into the Army with an easier exam than the rest! He must be very ignorant to put it into my mind.

I hope you are keeping
justly well.

My dear Father

Thanks for your letter. Blossie is very well & so is the infant. As you say I did know that we will do into them when they grow up but in the meantime it is as well for Billy to have some sense for competition, and my child seems a great bits of King spoiled.

But two is enough.

I did - think Seymour wanted you to take the shot away, he only thought you might want them, so I had them there
if you had no use for them.

I don't know ~~when~~ when I go to job. In War office or the Guards are fighting over the transfer of officers from job. home or appointment as 3rd in Command. In War office does not recognize this 'privilege'. I hope they will continue to fight.
