

Mr. Mayall presents his Compl^{ts} to General Pitt-Rivers & begs to enclose him a loop proof of his portrait, before giving it to their artist, with such or two settings this portrait will be all that can be desired he would also like definite & full instructions as to marks found, so as to want further loss of time.
As Mr. M. is anxious to make this portrait with that can be desired & a success
