

not of this shape.
at Prading I remember a piece of bone, so probably with your enormous experience
you may have met with something similar to the photograph.

I imagine that they are two of a set, a blank and a score.

Unfortunately the finds on Ham Hill give you no date as nearly the whole hill has been superficially quarried & the superficial rubble and soil has been thrown in heaps - These heaps are now being disturbed

21010

Nov 30. 97

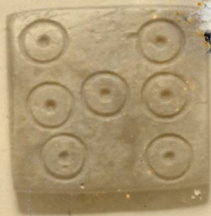

The Gables,
Stoke under Ham,
Somerset.

Dear Sir
Pardon my
again troubling you.
I enclose you a photo of two counters (for want of a better name) found on Ham Hill with Romano-British pottery, Roman fibula and flint flakes - I can fall across nothing like it - nor can I find any one who has I have seen the circle and dot on Roman pieces of bone but for deeper quarrying and bring to light things of all ages jumbled together from heathen to medieval.

again a apology for intruding on you - Yours truly

Walter. Winter. Water

Bone counters from Ham Hill
found with flints, pottery and Roman fibulae

The reverse side
Walter Winter Walter