Dear General Pitt Rivers.

Please accept my best thanks for the extremely interesting photos of the Roman bulldog at Iwerne. I don't remember seeing or hearing young bulldogs in England which has retained its painted walls to such an extent as this seems to have done.

I don't understand how it ever got buried 4 feet deep or more as it seems to be - such an apparently open structure.

I am
for ever yours

Edw. Goldsard.
