WAR OFFICE,
LONDON, S.W.

23rd December 1897.

Dear General Pitt Rivers I think it only courteous to tell you that, as I want to be at the sea as much as possible for some time to come, I am letting No 4 Grosvenor Gardens for three months. Of course, this does not in any way alter my responsibility to you for rent, dilapidations &c.

WAR OFFICE
LONDON, S.W.

We like your house very much & find it comfortable & convenient in every way. Wishing you all the compliments of the Season believe me to be very truly yours Whalley

Dear Lord Walsley

I got both your letters this morning here.
I am ill in bed. & write from bed, as you have let the house for three months I think it will be best that that should stand as I don't wish to put you to any inconvenience, but I don't think it is quite correct

However that can be gone into another time. I am not well enough to consider it now.
I find letting the house is more convenient than I expected.

Yours very truly
A. Pitt Rivers.
