GUY'S CLIFF,
SYDENHAM ROAD,
BRISTOL.

12. Feb. 1898.

Dear Sir.

As a young and ardent Antiquary I read with much pleasure the current newspaper reports of your presidential address at Dorchester last year, and now I learn that this has been fully revised and issued by yourself in pamphlet form.

have been working at the same periods referred to
by you, for some years,
and on the Honous Welsh hill downs, the Mendys, and elsewhere,
have gathered numerous
specimens.

Amongst antiquaries
it

is well known how ready you always are to render help to others; so that I hope you will not consider me inde in asking if you have a copy of your address left, that you can spare me.

Believe me, Dear Sir,

Yours truly,

John G. Pritchard.
