Dear Sir.

I have to acknowledge with many thanks, the copy of your address
at Dorchester last year, and I am looking forward with great pleasure to a careful study of the same: the plans

are invaluable.

But, I should like to add, that when I wrote I was unaware that the same could be purchased at the inadequate
price marked on the
copy to hand.
Wishing

For many years of continued health for further investigations.

Believe me

Yours faithfully,

John E. Prichard
