

The former Tree, a motley pack of dogs of all kinds pulling down
a Stag. I don't care about this picture so much. as "The Law Suite".

Sincerely hoping you will soon be well

Dear Sir -

I am very sorry indeed to hear you are out of health - and I hope you will soon be
quite well again.
I would like you to have The Mean Stag.
I don't like it to go
into any body's hands
and it is rather big to carry about. Its size

WYLLIAMS

is very much larger than yours &

it has been in our family a great number of years -

The Pictures I do not part with, they are very interesting to Wills and Dorrit men.
They are copies of the originals, which were made in London, and Therefore was being to my Brother Rev. F. King.

Canon Jackson likes
to them in a lecture.
He gave me Cranborne Chase, of which you
no doubt have a copy.
If you saw had you
mine - I have another very curious old painting of the celebrated dog at Haverley on the day
the Deer were killed from Swire to Swire near

W. King's

"Man Trap"
