

me. I am, Dear Sir,
Yours faithfully
J. C. Gould

Gould
2 copies of
"Address"
sent on Apr. 21/98.

L2072

TRAPS HILL HOUSE,
LOUGHTON,
ESSEX.

April 18. 1898

Dear Sir,

Can you spare a copy of your "address" to the Arch. Inst. which is reviewed in this month's Reliquary for the Essex Arch. Soc. Liby. Colchester in which library I take much interest.

I should also be glad to have a copy for my own use here but this latter I shall of course be quite willing to buy in the ordinary way when I know of whom it may be obtained. I am not a member of the Arch: Institute before which body your paper was read, but am ~~an~~ a member of the British Arch: Assocⁿ. which association by the way would much value any communications you might send for reading at their fortnightly meetings at 32 Tackville St if you can ever find time to send however brief an account of any of your work or any subject in which you are interested in connection with archaeology. Knowing how fully you are occupied & with how many societies you are connected I feel almost ashamed to suggest such a matter

as above but I know you will pardon