

any suggestion, as why ~~it~~ the ~~should have taken that wall~~ should have taken that peculiar direction, first S - then W - then S again. If it is not troubling you too much, I should indeed be glad for a little assistance on these points.

I remain
Yrs very faithfully
J. Teetgen

L^{td} G. Pitt-Rivers.

Teetgen
Ans. May 12/98.

L2074

St. Breckles,
68, Kenneb Hill,
Upper Norwood, S.E.

23 April 1898

Dear Sir,

For some little time past I have been trying to make a study of Roman London, and if I am not mistaken, I think I read a very interesting article of yours in one of the archaeological journals, on the Walbrook, but I cannot call to mind wherein I read it, nor how I find it. Would you kindly inform me if I am right as to your contribution, & if so where I may again have the pleasure of reading it?

I would at the same time

