

Alexandra Road (22078)
Epsom, Surrey,
May 2nd 1898,

Lieut. Gen. A. Pitt-Rivers,
Sir

I take the liberty of writing to you, as I am still disengaged, as it's a long time to be out of a situation. If you don't think I have been accustomed to such a large home farm as Reushmore may I ask a great favour.
If you would kindly assist me in recommendation to obtain a situation to manage for a gentleman's home farm not so large (or to assist the Steward on an estate, as I thoroughly well acquainted with the Estate and farm business accounts and surveying timber. I felt it in having to leave your services after trying to produce corn, Hay and straw for you, and not having to buy during the time I had the entire charge of your Home Farm, Waiting the favour of your reply

I remain Sir
Your Obedient Servant,
G. J. R. Brewer,
