Dear Sir,

I am sending off now
the 250 copies of
"Cranham Chase"
by rail, & hope they will reach you
safely. The facsimile is a good one, I think you will find, & I hope it will please you. In the case I have enclosed

the original, & also a copy of the facsimile in special binding, of which I
beg your acceptance.
The production of the book has taken much longer than it would have done if we could have taken the original pieces; as it was the work had to be done by one man, instead of the sheets being spread among several; & the printer-piece could not be put in hand till

the printing was completed for the same reason

I am

Dear Sir

Yours faithfully

Elliott Stock
