And May 25/98. Blandford.
May. 16. 98

Dear Sir,

For some time past I have, after much consideration, come to the conclusion that it would be beneficial to the parishes of Ibberton & Belchamwell if another Clergyman was in charge over them. I have therefore been endeavouring to find some incumbent who would like to make an exchange of "living" with me - one holding a living in Cornwall is anxious to do this, and I therefore write to ask you as Patron of this living, whether you would kindly appoint a present this incumbent to take my place here - if I resigned this, and was appointed to this living -

He is a married man, with three children - and from what I have seen of him, I think he would get on very well with the people here - I should be glad to oblige.

if you will let me have an answer at some earliest convenience - and also, treat this Communication as Confidential.

I remain Dear Sir - Yours faithfully
J. Augustus Wise
