

I would ask you to send it back, as it is already partly filled in for me by Dr. Halliwell-Phillipps.

Apologising for troubling you - whose time is so fully occupied I know -

I am

Yours faithfully

Dear Sir,

Last Wednesday week I sent to you two Somersetshire tracts that I have edited, and I enclosed with them a form of application for membership in the Society of Antiquaries: I have not so far received any acknowledgment from you that these books and the form

(L209)

have duly come into your hands and as I am rather anxious about the latter I should feel much obliged if you would let me know that you have it, and of course I should feel more obliged if you were able to see your way to return it to me signed; if however you do not care to attach your signature to it - an event which I should much deplore -
