

was Captain Pedley,
The Commandant at Assuan, the ~~man~~
belonged to a friend of his, who was in Egypt,
a Captain or Major somebody, but I will write & find out more & let you know - there
was only that one coat of mail of that special kind, as far as I remember, & the unknown - the

possessor, was said to understand such things & had said it was quite different to any
he had ever seen
before - I have no doubt he could write & give you details, if I got Captain Pedley to ask him to, & sent your address - I do not think there is any old mail to be got in the Dardanelles - a man - honest as such
