

Again apologising for the liberty I have taken

I am, Sir,

Yours faithfully

W. Pointet.

Pointet.
Ans^d. June 3/98.

Gen^l. Pitt-Rivers.

Rushmore
Salisbury.

The Manse
Shaftesbury
27th May 1898.

(L2098)

Sir

Pardon the liberty I take in addressing you by asking your kind favour in the loan of lamps for the illuminating of the Abbey House gardens, Shaftesbury on the 6th July on the occasion of a Sale of Work in connection with the Congregational Church here.

I shall feel under great obligation to you for your kindness should you accede to my request.