June 7. 1898.

Dear Sir,

I beg respectfully to inform you that the employes of the above establishment intend taking their Annual Outing at the end of this month. It being the custom to write to gentlemen in & connected with the county: £ for subscriptions to help defray expenses in connection therewith, I have taken the liberty to write soliciting a similar favour.

Apologising for thus troubling you,

I remain, Sir,

Yours faithfully,

H. Watts,

General Pitt Rivers.
