Cheshbourn Rectory

Forchestei.

June 10. 1878.

Dear General Pitt Rivers

I have sounded both the Archdeacon & the Rural Dean as to the opinion about joining Melcombe to Chesel-bourn & have found both rather against it.

but I have since learned that each of the aforesaid gentlemen is hoping that a friend of his own may be appointed. W.

Woodhouse of Austerly also has a friend who would take it if offered.

As the Archbishop Ruse Dean would do doubt influence the Bishop the question arises whether it is worth while to approach him on the matter directly at present.

Of course I am willing to do what you wish.

Your sincerely

J. D. Bealey

Possibly W. Bosworth Smith may have a man too.
