Dear Sir,

I called at the Office of Messrs. Rawlinson & Trenchard the Surveyors & of Messrs.
Wilson & saw the Ordnance Maps, 1 inch to the mile, on which the courses of the two Railways were delineated, & left by the Cos

FOULERS ROAD HILL,
SALISBURY

1. The nearest part of the Andover & Steventon line is 1 mile  $\pm \frac{1}{2}$  of a mile consequently no station can be nearer

2. The nearest part of the Salisbury & Pewsey line is  $\frac{1}{4}$  mile;  $\pm \frac{1}{2}$  of a mile - so here no station can be placed nearer than a mile.

I understand the owner of Stonehenge is unwilling to listen to anything being done for its protection - It is of no value in an agricultural sense - only a "white elephant" - He ought to be willing to sell it for a mere song, say 100 guineas, get rid of all care of it - The Crown then could for a few hundred pounds build a near, but
